

Governor's Task Force on Wild Rice Meeting Two Agenda

Meeting 2 – October 11, Twin Cities, 10:00-5:00

Objectives

- ❖ Explore cultural and community impacts related to wild rice and the sulfate water quality standard
- ❖ Begin to identify shared values, needs and interests
- ❖ Gain knowledge about the impact of sulfate on wild rice health
- ❖ Gain knowledge of tribal-state relations and tribal-state consultation process

Agenda

- Rational and Experiential Objectives
Welcome group and go over agenda, process, and logistics for the day. Discuss rational and experiential objectives for the meeting.
- Public Comment Period
- Presentations on Cultures and Communities in Northern Minnesota
Panelist will present viewpoints on how wild rice and water quality standards intersect with ways of life, cultural traditions, and social and economic changes in Northern Minnesota.
 - Nancy Schuldt, Water Projects Coordinator, Fond du Lac Band of Lake Superior Chippewa
 - Iron Range Resident TBA
 - Polarities Management Activity
- Role of Sulfate on Wild Rice Health
Introduction to scientific research on the role of sulfate on wild rice including identification of areas of agreement, areas of disagreement, unknowns, and potential next steps.
 - Dr. Nate Johnson, Professor, University of Minnesota Duluth
 - Mike Hansel, Senior Chemical Engineer, Barr Engineering
 - Ed Swain, Research Scientist, Minnesota Pollution Control Agency
- Tribal-State Relations and Tribal Consultation Panel
Orientation to Federal Indian Policy and the legal history between Tribes and the State. Overview of Minnesota Tribes and territories. Overview of the Tribal-State consultation process.
 - Tadd Johnson, Professor, University of Minnesota Duluth
 - Ed Fairbanks, Tribal Liaison for the Minnesota Department of Transportation
 - Dennis Olson, Executive Director, Minnesota Indian Affairs Council
- Wrap up